2nd International IRE-Expert Conference
„Cultural Heritage – Added Value for the Regions“

Thursday, 26th / Friday, 27th April 2018
09:00 hrs – 16:00 hrs
Novi Sad, Serbia Venue: Assembly of Autonomous Province of Vojvodina

It is our peculiar task to preserve and maintain our cultural heritage and inherit it onto future generations. Through cherishing our cultural heritage, we can see the cultural diversity in Europe and henceforth can discover what we have in common.

The aim of the conference is to present best-practice examples for preserving cultural heritage in different European regions especially in Central-, East- and Southeastern Europe, to exchange experiences and knowledge for conservation. Furthermore, innovative financial mechanisms for regional and local activities to protect Cultural Heritage will be discussed by experts from all over Europe.
